RE: MSU Policy and Union Contract Provisions Following Election to Political Office And Participation In Political Activities

================================================================

SUMMARY: Both existing support staff policy and most individual collective bargaining agreements anticipate and provide provisions for employees elected to public office. As described below, the anticipated result of election to public office is movement of the employee to unpaid leave.

When collective bargaining agreements are silent on the issue, it is our position that the following MSU Support Staff Policy on Leave of Absence Without Pay applies.

There are NO specific collective bargaining agreement provisions or union work rules that prohibit Participation in Political Activities.

1. MSU Support Staff Policies and Procedures

The current Support Staff Policies and Procedures document anticipates the possibility and MSU response to support staff employees who may be elected to public office. The following policy covers both non-represented employees and represented employees (specifically when specific collective bargaining agreements are silent on the issue). The MSU Support Staff Policies and Procedures document is on the human resource website at:
